“writing” means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form by any method or combination of methods, whether sent or supplied in hard copy form, in electronic form or otherwise, and “written” means in writing.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender, the singular includes the plural and vice versa and words importing persons shall include corporations.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these Articles have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts but excluding any statutory modification not in force when this constitution becomes binding on the Company.

Liability of Guarantor Members

- (1) The liability of the Guarantor Members is limited.
- (2) Every Guarantor Member of the Company promises, if the Company is dissolved while he or she is a Guarantor Member or within twelve months after he or she ceases to be a Guarantor Member, to contribute such sum (not exceeding £50) as may be demanded of him or her towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company incurred before he or she ceases to be a Guarantor Member, and of the costs charges and expenses of winding up, and the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Objects

- 3 The Company's objects (the "Objects") are specifically restricted to the following:
- (1) to advance the education of the public in issues relating to human population worldwide and its impact on environmental sustainability;
  - (2) to advance, promote and encourage research to determine optimum and ecologically sustainable human population levels in all or any part or parts of the world and to publicise the results of such research; and
  - (3) to advance environmental protection by promoting policies, in the United Kingdom or any other part or parts of the world, which will lead or contribute to the achievement of stable human population levels which allow environmental sustainability.

Powers

- 4 The Company has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Company has power:
- (1) to cause to be written, compiled, purchased and edited, and printed or otherwise published, reproduced, circulated or transmitted, gratuitously or otherwise, such periodicals, magazines, books, reports, leaflets or other documents or recordings, films, videos or software as the Company may see fit;
  - (2) to present, organise, manage, conduct and hold exhibitions, meetings, lectures, classes, debates, seminars, conferences, demonstrations and courses either alone or with others;
  - (3) to foster and undertake research into any aspect of the Objects and the Company's work and to disseminate the useful results of any such research;
  - (4) to raise funds and to invite and receive contributions from any person or persons whatsoever by way of appeals, subscription, donation, bequests and otherwise. In doing so, the Company must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
  - (5) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
  - (6) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Company. In exercising this power, the Company must comply as appropriate with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011;
  - (7) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company as security for repayment of the money borrowed. The Company must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011, if it wishes to mortgage land;
  - (8) to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills, cheques and other instruments, and to operate bank accounts in the name of the Company;
  - (9) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;

- (10) to establish or support or aid in the establishment or support of any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;
- (11) to acquire, merge with or to enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other company, institution, society or association which has objects similar to any of the Objects and which prohibit the payment of any dividend or profit to and the distribution of any of their assets amongst their members at least to the same extent as such payments or distributions are prohibited in the case of Guarantor Members of the Company;
- (12) to make grants, subscribe or guarantee money or donate assets for charitable purposes in any way connected with the purposes of the Company or calculated to further the Objects;
- (13) to lend money and give credit to, take security for such loans, to guarantee and become or put security for the performance of contracts by any person or persons to supervise, organise, carry on the work of and advise the Company;
- (14) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
- (15) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for supervising, organising, advising and carrying out the work of the Company. The Company may employ or remunerate a Trustee Board Member only to the extent it is permitted to do so by, and provided it complies with the conditions in, Articles 6 and 7;
- (16) to:
  - (a) deposit or invest funds;
  - (b) employ a professional fund manager; and
  - (c) arrange for the investments or other property of the Company to be held in the name of a nominee;

in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

- (17) to provide indemnity insurance for Trustee Board Members or any other officer of the Company in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011 (provided that in the case of an officer who is not a Trustee Board Member, the second and third references to "charity trustees" in the said section 189 shall be treated as references to officers of the Company);
- (18) to insure and arrange insurance cover for and to indemnify its officers, servants and voluntary workers and its Guarantor Members from and against all such risks incurred in the course of the performance of their duties as may be thought fit;
- (19) to apply monies in insuring any buildings or other property to their full value;
- (20) to pay out of the funds of the Company the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company as a charity;
- (21) to establish local branches (whether autonomous or not);

- (22) to do all such other lawful things as shall further the above Objects or any of them;
- (23) to, alone or with other organisations seek to influence public opinion and make representations to and seek to influence governmental and other bodies and institutions regarding the reform, development and implementation of appropriate policies, legislation and regulations provided that all such activities shall be confined to those which an English and Welsh charity may properly undertake.

Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
- (2)
  - (a) A Trustee Board Member is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Company or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Company.
  - (b) A Trustee Board Member may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Company's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, the Charities Act 2011.
  - (c) A Trustee Board Member may receive an indemnity from the Company in the circumstances specified in Article 64.
- (3) None of the income or property of the Company may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Guarantor Member of the Company. This does not prevent a Guarantor Member who is not also a Trustee Board Member receiving:
  - (a) reasonable and proper remuneration for any services rendered to the Company;
  - (b) interest on money lent to the Company at a reasonable and proper rate not exceeding the minimum lending rate prescribed for the time being by a clearing bank selected by the Board;
  - (c) reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any Guarantor Member to the Company.

Provision of goods and services, employment, other remuneration/financial benefits to Trustee Board Members/connected persons

- 6 No Trustee Board Member or connected person may:
- (a) buy any goods or services from the Company on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
  - (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Company;
  - (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Company;
  - (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Company;

unless:

- (i) the payment is permitted by Article 7; or
- (ii) the Trustee Board Members obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

Scope and powers permitting Trustee Board Members'/connected persons' benefits

- (1) A Trustee Board Member or connected person may receive reasonable and proper remuneration for any services rendered to the Company, provided that this provision may not apply to more than half of the Trustee Board Members in any financial year (and for these purposes this provision shall be treated as applying to a Trustee Board Member if it applies to a person who is connected to that Trustee Board Member).
- (2) The Company may pay reasonable annual sums or premiums for or towards the provision of pensions for officers or servants for the time being of the Company and their dependants.
- (3) A Trustee Board Member or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Company at a reasonable and proper rate not exceeding the minimum lending rate prescribed for the time being by a clearing bank selected by the Board.
- (4) A Trustee Board Member or connected person may receive reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Company.
- (5) The Company may pay fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to a company of which a Trustee Board Member is a member holding not more than 1% of the capital of that company.

Trustee Board Members as Guarantor Members

- (1) The Trustee Board Members from time to time shall be the only Guarantor Members of the Company.
- (2) A Trustee Board Member shall become a Guarantor Member on becoming a Trustee Board Member. All new Trustee Board Members are treated as having agreed to become Guarantor Members of the Company.
- (3) The names of the Guarantor Members of the Company must be entered in the register of members.

Termination of Guarantor Membership

- (1) A Guarantor Member shall cease to be a Guarantor Member if he or she ceases to be a Trustee Board Member.
- (2) Guarantor Membership is not transferable and shall cease on death.

General meetings

- 10 An annual general meeting must be held in each year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.
- 11 The Board may call a general meeting at any time. General meetings shall also be convened on the requisition of Guarantor Members of the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Acts. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Trustee Board Members to form a quorum for the purpose of calling such meeting, any Trustee Board Member may convene a general meeting.

Notice of general meetings

- (1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Company are:
- (a) twenty-eight clear days for an annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution;
  - (b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings.
- (2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:
- (a) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the Guarantor Members entitled to attend and vote; and
  - (b) in the case of any other general meeting, by a majority in number of Guarantor Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights.
- (3) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of Guarantor Members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and Article 21.
- (4) The notice must be given to all the Guarantor Members and to the Trustee Board Members and the auditors.
- 13 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Company.

Proceedings at general meetings

- (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (2) A quorum is:
- (a) three Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting; or
  - (b) one tenth of the total Guarantor Membership entitled to vote at the time whichever is the greater.

- (1) If:
  - (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or
  - (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Board shall determine.
- (2) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting with fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the Guarantor Members present at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

- (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the Board.
- (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Trustee Board Members present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

The chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no other business shall be transacted at any reconvened meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

- (1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:
  - (a) by the person chairing the meeting; or
  - (b) by at least two Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
  - (c) by a Guarantor Member or Guarantor Members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Guarantor Members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- (2)
  - (a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.
  - (b) The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the Company but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.

- (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
- (b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

- (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Guarantor Members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
- (b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

- (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.
- (c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded.
- (d) No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and the place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- (e) If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

Votes of Guarantor Members

- (1) Subject to the Article 18(2), every Guarantor Member shall have one vote.
- (2) No Guarantor Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting or at any adjourned meeting if he or she owes any money to the Company.

19 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.

20 Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

Content of proxy notices

- (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

- (a) states the name and address of the Guarantor Member appointing the proxy;
  - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that Guarantor Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
  - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the Guarantor Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Trustee Board Members may determine; and
  - (d) is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- (2) The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
  - (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
  - (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as
    - (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
    - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of proxy notices

22

- (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

23

- (1) A proxy notice must be delivered in advance of the meeting to the Registered Office or to any address specified in the notice of general meeting for the receipt of proxy notices in electronic form or, at the meeting at which the poll was demanded, to the chairman or any Trustee Board Member.
- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given to a proxy notification address.
- (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before:
  - (a) the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates, or
  - (b) (in the case of a poll not taken on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll to which it relates.
- (4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Written resolutions

- (1) A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the Guarantor Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:
  - (a) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible Guarantor Member;
  - (b) a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of Guarantor Members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and
  - (c) it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the Registered Office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- (2) A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more Guarantor Members have signified their agreement.

Board

25 The Company shall have a Board, which shall comprise the Trustee Board Members of the Company from time to time.

26

- (1) A Trustee Board Member must be an individual aged 16 years or older.
- (2) No one may be appointed a Trustee Board Member if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 37.

27 The maximum number of Trustee Board Members shall be determined by the Company in general meeting, and at the date of these Articles is fixed at twelve. The minimum number of Trustee Board Members shall be three.

28 The first Trustee Board Members were those persons notified to Companies House as the first Trustee Board Members of the Company; Trustee Board Members for the time being are such persons as have been duly appointed and who remain in office under these Articles or previous iterations of the Articles as in force at the relevant time.

29 A Trustee Board Member may not appoint an alternate or anyone to act on his or her behalf at Board meetings.

Powers of the Board

- (1) The Board shall manage the business of the Company and may exercise all the powers of the Company unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, these Articles or any special resolution.
- (2) No alteration of these Articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Board.

- (3) Any meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Board.

Appointment and retirement of Trustee Board Members

- 31 Any person who is willing to act as a Trustee Board Member, and who would not be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 37, may be appointed to be a Trustee Board Member by a decision of the Board.
- 32 Subject to Articles 33 and 34, each Trustee Board Member shall retire at the Board meeting which follows the third anniversary of the commencement of his or her term of office. The retirement will take place at the conclusion of the meeting.
- 33 Trustee Board Members retiring after three years may be reappointed for a second three-year term (to end at the conclusion of the Board meeting following the third anniversary of the commencement of that term) after which, and subject to Article 34, they may not be reappointed until the Board meeting following the anniversary of the commencement of his or her break from office.
- 34 Should the Trustee Board Members decide there are exceptional circumstances in which it will be in the best interests of the Company for a Trustee Board Member retiring after serving two three-year terms not to take a break from office, the restrictions set out in Article 33 will not apply. In these circumstances the relevant Trustee Board Member may be reappointed for a term of one further year, which, subject to Article 35 may be renewed for further terms of one year, with the reasons for the decision recorded in the Trustee Board Minutes. Any additional term of one year shall end at the conclusion of the first Board meeting following the anniversary of the commencement of that term.
- 35 No Trustee Board Member may be reappointed under Article 34 for more than three additional terms of one years (serving nine consecutive years in total) without a rigorous review and justification, both of which shall be recorded in the Company's annual report.
- 36 If the retirement of a Trustee Board Member under Article 32 causes the number of Trustee Board Members to fall below that set out in Article 27 then the retiring Trustee Board Member shall remain in office until a new appointment is made.

Disqualification and removal of Trustee Board Members

- 37 A Trustee Board Member shall cease to hold office if he or she:
  - (1) ceases to be a Trustee Board Member by virtue of any provision in the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from being a director;
  - (2) is disqualified from acting as a Trustee under the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);
  - (3) ceases to be a Guarantor Member of the Company;
  - (4) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;
  - (5) at a meeting of the Board at which at least two-thirds of the Trustee Board Members are present, a resolution is passed that he or she be removed from office. Such a resolution shall not be passed unless he or she has been given at least 14 clear days' notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of either (at his or her option) being heard by or of making written representations to the Board;

- (6) resigns as a Trustee Board Member by notice to the Company (but only if at least three Trustee Board Members will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or
- (7) is absent without the permission of the Trustee Board Members from all their meetings held within a period of six consecutive months and the Trustee Board Members resolve that his or her office be vacated.

Trustee Board Members' remuneration

38 The Trustee Board Members must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by Articles 6 and 7.

Proceedings of the Board

39

- (1) The Board may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit, subject to the provisions of the Articles.
- (2) Any Trustee Board Member may call a Board meeting.
- (3) The secretary (if any) must call a meeting of the Board if requested to do so by a Trustee Board Member.
- (4) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- (5) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

40

- (1) No decision may be made by a meeting of the Board unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made.
- (2) The quorum shall be two or the number nearest to one third of total number of Trustee Board Members, whichever is the greater or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the Board.
- (3) A Trustee Board Member shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Trustee Board Member is not entitled to vote.

41 Any person entitled to be present at a meeting of the Board may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of a conference telephone, video conference or other facility whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where it is convened to be held or (if no Trustee Board Member is present in that place) where the largest group of those participating is assembled, or if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is.

42 If the number of Trustee Board Members is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Trustee Board Members or Trustee Board Member may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

- (1) The Board shall appoint a Trustee Board Member or Trustee Board Members to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment(s).
- (2) If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the Board or if the person(s) appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Trustee Board Members present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.
- (3) The person appointed to chair meetings of the Trustee Board Members shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by the Articles or delegated to him or her by the Board.

- (1) A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by a simple majority of all the Trustee Board Members entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Trustee Board Members and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held provided that:
  - (a) a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the Trustee Board Members eligible to vote; and
  - (b) a simple majority of Trustee Board Members has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the Registered Office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.
- (2) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more Trustee Board Members has signified their agreement.

Delegation

- (1) The Board may delegate any of their powers or functions to sub-Committees consisting of two or more such persons as they think fit but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book.
- (2) The Board may delegate the implementation of their decisions or day to day management of the affairs of the Company to any person or committee including for the avoidance of any doubt, a chief executive or other manager or managers, any Advisory Committee, any President or Patron of the Company.
- (3) Any delegation by the Board may be:
  - (a) By such means;
  - (b) To such an extent;
  - (c) In relation to such matters or territories; and
  - (d) On such terms and conditions;
as they think fit.

- (4) The Board may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:
  - (e) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the Board to whom they delegate;
  - (f) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Company except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Trustee Board Members.
- (5) The Trustee Board Members may revoke or alter a delegation.
- (6) All acts and proceedings of any sub-Committees must be fully and promptly reported to the Board.
- (7) The Board may authorise further delegation of the relevant powers, functions, implementation of decisions or day to day management by any person or committee to whom they are delegated.
- (8) The Board may by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.

46 A Trustee Board Member must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Board in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Company and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Declaration of Trustee Board Members' interests

47 A Trustee Board Member must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared. A Trustee Board Member must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Board in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Company and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of interests

- (1) If a conflict of interests arises for a Trustee Board Member because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted Trustee Board Members may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:
  - (a) the conflicted Trustee Board Member is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;
  - (b) the conflicted Trustee Board Member does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Trustee Board Members is present at the meeting; and
  - (c) the unconflicted Trustee Board Members consider it is in the interests of the company to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

- (2) In this Article a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a Trustee Board Member or to a connected person.

Validity of Board decisions

49

- (1) Subject to Article 49(2), all acts done by a meeting of the Board, or of a sub-Committee, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Trustee Board Member:

- (a) who was disqualified from holding office;
- (b) who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
- (c) who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

if without:

- (d) the vote of that Trustee Board Member; and
- (e) that Trustee Board Member being counted in the quorum;

the decision has been made by a majority of the Trustee Board Members at a quorate meeting.

- (2) Article 49(1) does not permit a Trustee Board Member to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Board or of a sub-Committee if, but for Article 49(1), the resolution would have been void, or if the Trustee Board Member has not complied with Article 47.

- (1) Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Trustee Board Member in connection with the taking of decisions by the Board may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Trustee Board Member has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.
- (2) A Trustee Board Member may agree with the Company that notices or documents sent to that Trustee Board Member in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

- 61 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles including a notice calling a meeting of the Board:
- (1) must be in writing; or
  - (2) must be given in electronic form.
- 62
- (1) The Company may give any notice to a Guarantor Member either:
    - (a) personally; or
    - (b) by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the Guarantor Member at his or her address; or
    - (c) by leaving it at the address of the Guarantor Member; or
    - (d) by giving it using electronic communications to the Guarantor Member's address.
  - (2) A Guarantor Member who does not register an address with the Company, or who registers only a postal address that is not within the United Kingdom, shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Company.
- 63 A Guarantor Member present in person at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and of the purposes for which it was called.
- (1) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.
  - (2) Proof that an electronic form of notice was given shall be conclusive where the Company can demonstrate that it was properly addressed and sent, in accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006.
  - (3) In accordance with section 1147 of the Companies Act 2006, a notice shall be deemed to be given:
    - (a) 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted; or
    - (b) in the case of an electronic form of communication, 48 hours after it was sent.

Indemnity

- 64 The Company shall indemnify every Trustee Board Member or other officer or auditor of the Company against any liability incurred by him or her in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in favour of the Trustee Board Member or in which the Trustee Board Member is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to the Trustee Board Member by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.

Rules

- (1) The Board may from time to time make such reasonable and proper rules or bye laws as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the Company.
- (2) The bye laws may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:
  - (a) the appointment of Trustee Board Members of the Company;
  - (b) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Company's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
  - (c) the procedure at general meetings and meetings of the Board in so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Companies Acts or by these Articles;
  - (d) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.
- (3) The rules or bye laws, shall be binding on all Guarantor Members of the Company. No rule or bye law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Articles.

Dissolution

66

- (1) The members of the Company may at any time before, and in expectation of, its dissolution resolve that any net assets of the Company after all its debts and liabilities have been paid, or provision has been made for them, shall on or before the dissolution of the Company be applied or transferred in any of the following ways:
  - (a) for the Objects; or
  - (b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes similar to the Objects; or
  - (c) to any charity or charities for use for particular purposes that fall within the Objects.
- (2) Subject to any such resolution of the members of the Company, the Board may at any time before and in expectation of its dissolution resolve that any net assets of the Company after all its debts and liabilities have been paid, or provision made for them, shall on or before dissolution of the Company be applied or transferred:
  - (a) directly for the Objects; or
  - (b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes similar to the Objects; or
  - (c) to any charity or charities for use for particular purposes that fall within the Objects.

- (3) In no circumstances shall the net assets of the Company be paid to or distributed among the members of the charity (except to a member that is itself a charity) and if no resolution in accordance with Article 66(1) is passed by the members or the Board the net assets of the Company shall be applied for charitable purposes as directed by the Court or the Commission.
